

No.30 Albert Louis Howell

Albert Howell was born in Ladywood, 26 July 1898, and joined Hednesford Town in the first season following the closure of WWI.

Albert was transferred to Coventry City during the following season to operate at inside right in their Second Division side. He made four appearances, scoring one goal in his one and only season in the Football League before moving to Jarrow soon afterwards.