

No.43 Alfred Martin

Alf was one of those dashing centre forwards who did not spend long at the Keys. He was born in Norton Canes and transferred to Walsall in 1925 where he played two senior games at full-back before moving to Stockport County in 1926.

Alf made only four appearances for Stockport, scoring two goals, before injury ended his career that same year.

From the Dave Shaw archive.